

WRITING WORKSHOP FOR PARENTS

HOSTED BY LOCAL AUTHOR MELISSA FACE

SATURDAY, FEB. 19TH, 2022, 1PM

THE HOPEWELL LIBRARY

Join Melissa Face for an afternoon workshop of writing and sharing the stories that connect us as parents.

Parenting is undoubtedly the most rewarding and most challenging job there is. Writing about the moments of success, as well as the turbulent times, is the perfect way to sort out experiences and remember milestones. Sharing the good and bad of parenthood helps us remember that we are not alone on this journey.

Melissa Face is the author of I Love You More Than Coffee, an essay collection for parents who love coffee a lot and their kids...a little more.

Her essays and articles have appeared in Richmond Family Magazine, Tidewater Family Magazine, Scary Mommy, and twenty-two volumes of Chicken Soup for the Soul.

She lives in Prince George and teaches world literature at the Appomattox Regional Governor's School for the Arts and Technology.
